Type of personal data collected

We process the following personal data, which we collect in the course of our business relationship for the purpose of initiation, establishment and processing of contractual and delivery relationships, including delivery, payment and any warranty or product liability from you receive:

Name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, contact details of contact persons, customer number as well as order and delivery data

We process your data for the following purposes and on the following legal basis

We process personal data in accordance with the provisions of the European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG):

To fulfill contractual obligations (Art. 6 para. 1 letter b GDPR).

The processing of data is carried out for the execution of: Our contract/order.

Due to legal requirements (Art. 6 para. 1 lit. c GDPR).

We are subject to various legal obligations that entail data processing. These include for example: the fulfillment of control and reporting obligations under tax law.

In addition, the disclosure of personal data may be necessary in the context of official/court measures for purposes of gathering evidence, criminal prosecution or enforcement of civil claims.

DATA PROTECTION INFORMATION

Based on consent (Art. 6 para. 1 letter a GDPR).

The processing of data is based on your consent, e.g. for marketing and advertising of our own products and services as well as for the creation of a customer history.

In the context of the balancing of interests (Art. 6 para. 1 f GDPR).

As far as necessary, we process your data beyond the actual fulfillment of the contract to protect legitimate interests of us or third parties, e.g. for the purpose of maintaining customer or business relationships; for Credit agencies (for example, from Schufa) for the purpose of credit checks concerning our suppliers, customers and other business partners in order to receive the contractually owed consideration (e.g. remuneration) for our services. (for example, remuneration) for our services.

Who receives my data?

Within our company

Employees for contact with you and contractual cooperation (including the fulfillment of pre-contractual measures).

Within the scope of order data processing

Your data may be passed on to service providers who act as order data processors for us.

All service providers are contractually bound and in particular obliged to treat your data confidentially.

Additional third parties

Data is only passed on to recipients outside our company in compliance with the applicable data protection regulations. Recipients of personal data can be:

- Companies that are involved in the fulfillment of contractual and delivery relationships, for example payments processing bank institutes / payment service providers as well as delivery processing transport companies / shipping companies;
- Companies that we use for marketing and advertising our products and services, e.g. marketing service providers and printers.
- specialized service providers who, on our instructions and under our responsibility, perform services for us within the scope of the purposes specified above (order data processors), for example IT service providers;
- third parties to whom we are legally obligated to transmit data, e.g., to the tax office or other governmental authorities;
- Third persons to fulfill our obligations under commercial and tax law, for example to our tax advisor.

Will data be transferred to a third country or to an international organization?

A data transfer to a third country outside the European Union, which is also not a contracting state of the Agreement on the European Economic Area, will only take place, if this data transfer is necessary for the performance of a contract existing contract between you and us (for example, delivery to a third country).

DATA PROTECTION INFORMATION

The processing of your data is carried out for the duration of the initiation and the execution of a contractual or supply relationship and for the duration of the continuation of obligations arising from a contractual or supply relationship, for example, any warranty or product liability obligations, as well as for the duration of commercial or tax law or tax law statutory retention periods.

How long will my data be stored?

We process and store your personal data as long as this is necessary for the fulfillment of our contractual and legal obligations. If the data are no longer required for the fulfillment of contractual or legal obligations, ~~they are obligations~~, it will be deleted on a regular basis.

Exceptions arise,

- insofar as legal storage obligations must be fulfilled, e.g. the German Commercial Code (HGB) and the German Fiscal Code (AO). The periods specified there for storage or documentation are generally six to ten years;
- for the preservation of evidence within the framework of the statutory limitation provisions. Pursuant to §§ 195 et seq. of the German Civil Code (BGB), these limitation periods can be up to 30 years, with the regular limitation period being 3 years.
- If there is a informed consent to storage

If the data processing is carried out in the legitimate interest of us or a third party, the personal data will be deleted as soon as this interest no longer exists. The aforementioned exceptions apply here.

What data protection rights do I have?

- You have the right to information under Article 15 of the GDPR, the right to rectification under Article 16 of the GDPR, the right to erasure under Article 17 of the GDPR, the right to restriction of processing under Article 18 of the GDPR, the right to object under Article 21 of the GDPR and the right to data portability under Article 20 of the GDPR.
- With regard to the right to information and the right to erasure, restrictions may apply in accordance with Sections 34 and 35 BDSG.
- In addition, there is a right of appeal to a competent data protection supervisory authority (Article 77 of GDPR in conjunction with. § 19 BDSG). The data protection supervisory authority responsible for us is: Thuringian State Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information, Häßlerstraße 8, De-99096 Erfurt, Germany.

Is there an obligation to provide data?

Within the framework of the contractual relationship, you must provide the personal data required for the initiation, performance and termination of the contractual relationship, and termination of the contractual relationship and for the fulfillment of the associated contractual obligations or which we are legally obligated to collect. Without this data, we will generally not be in a position to be able to conclude the contract with you or to execute it.

DATA PROTECTION INFORMATION

Information about your right to object in accordance with Article 21 of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

Right to object on a case-by-case basis

You have the right to object at any time, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to the processing of personal data concerning your personal data relating to you that is processed on the basis of Article 6(1)(a) GDPR (data processing based on consent) or on the basis of Article 6(1)(f) GDPR (data processing on the basis of a balance of interests); this also applies to profiling based on this provision within the meaning of Article 4 No. 4 GDPR. The lawfulness of processing carried out on the basis of the informed consent until revocation shall not be affected.

If you lodge an objection, we will no longer process your personal data unless we can show demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing serves the assertion, exercise or defense of legal claims.
